

Isles of Scilly Camp, Summer 2008.

After many successful camps on the Scillies, the PPCA (Port of Plymouth Canoeing Association) is organising one for 2008. The camp site at Pelistry on St Mary's is booked for two-weeks. Dates; Friday 25th July to Friday 8th August. You can come for any one or both of these weeks. The camp site, described as a "camping village", consists of two marquees, ten sleeping tents, wash tents and flushing toilets. There are also showers available at the adjacent farm. All sleeping tents are provided with floorboards and mattresses. One marquee has cooking facilities the other has trestle tables and chairs.

The costs of the campsite and travel are shown on the application form, see next page. The cheapest way to travel to the island is by ferry and if you book your ferry tickets via me, I have negotiated a discount but it is dependent on having enough people on the booking so I featured the maximum cost at the moment. Kayaks and bikes can be transported on the ferry by arrangement. If you let me know as soon as possible, I will be able to arrange a trailer and group rate for transporting these, depending on numbers. If enough people travel to the Scilly's by ferry then we should be able to have our own container to carry our gear in and then we share the cost of having the container transported to the field for us. If not, you will need to transport your own things to the site, or Island Carriers can transport it there at a cost of approx. £1 per item.

The PPCA take no responsibility for any activities undertaken during these two weeks. If wanted you will need to take out your own insurance cover for holiday, personal equipment etc. Families of 4 or more will be able to sleep in the tents provided, there is a possibility that smaller groups will have to share with others or bring their own small personal tents to use for sleeping.

The Isles of Scilly is a great place for a holiday, whether it's to kayak, enjoy the pristine beaches or to stroll around the various islands. Why not visit the official Isles of Scilly web site at <http://www.simplyscilly.co.uk/> to whet your appetite.

Please complete and send me the application form on the next page plus your deposit as soon as possible to confirm your place. It will be first come first served
